PRESENTERHUB™

Take the Stress Out of Presentation Management

avfx

Meeting planners, event organizers, and educators need a robust presentation management system that can handle the increasing complexity of events, simplify content management, facilitate collaboration, and minimize technical issues.

PresenterHub™ is a next-generation presentation management system that offers a superior presentation experience and takes presentation management off your plate.

This secure, scalable tool is used to manage, monitor, and distribute presentations in corporate, association, and educational conference environments.

This purpose-built system is ideal for events with many concurrent breakout sessions. You can manage and monitor presentations in just a few rooms or 150+ rooms.

PresenterHub Saves Time, Money, and Staff Resources

Elevate your standard of presentation delivery and make it your competitive advantage.

Full Automation and Synchronization

Compile, review, and approve presentations before the event starts.

Efficient Content Management

Allow presenters to easily make changes to their presentations at any time.

Real-Time Updates and Version Control

Ensure attendees receive accurate and up-to-date information.

Streamlined Content Distribution

Keep presentations flowing, moving seamlessly from one speaker to the next.

Presenter Support and Remote Help

Monitor all presentations simultaneously and provide rapid support.

Exclusive Presenter View on Demand

Empower presenters to see their current slide and their next slide and notes.

Conferences That Run Like Clockwork

Presenter chaos and confusion behind the scenes	→	Transform nervous presenters into confident storytellers.
Last-minute presentation changes and hiccups	→	Sync files to the right room at the right time, enabling back-to-back presentations.
Costly, large-scale technical support teams	→	Reduce labor requirements with centralized, expert support.
Technical issues that jeopardize successful event execution	→	Take the complexity – and the risk – out of the presenter's journey.

"As a meeting planner, I know how to run meeting logistics, but it's really helpful to have people like your team who we can rely on and trust to make sure that we're using our money, our time, and our energy efficiently."
